Studying Poetry in the Bible. However one defines Hebrew poetry, a definition by itself will only go so far.

There is not just one type of poetry in the Bible. For this reason, it is more useful to study particular genres of biblical poetry that share similar features, forms, or other characteristics. While genres can often be distinguished in particular divisions of biblical texts (e.g., the Prophets), genres sometimes cut across different books or sections of the canon (e.g., wisdom poetry).
