Historian Barbara Field argued in “Slavery, Race and Ideology in the United States of America” that racism is a “historical phenomenon” which does not explain racial ideology.[citation needed] She suggests that investigators should consider the term to be an American rhetorical device, with a historical explanation.

“Ideology and Race in American History”, by Barbara Fields

Ideology and Race in American History Barbara J. Fields. The notion of race has played a role in the way Americans think about their history similar to that once played by the frontier and, if anything, more durable. Long after the notion of the frontier has lost its power to do so, that of race continues to tempt many people into the mistaken belief that American experience constitutes the
